ANNO 1713

2283:13

TO THE READER.

YOU have here exposed to sale by way of Auction, the so much fam'd Library of that very Learned Gentleman and great Antiquary Sr. Edward Byshe, Clarendieux King of Armes, wherein are so many not only excellent, but very scarce Books in almost all kinds of Learning, which were never yet in any Auction, and these all so curiously Bound, and richly Gilt, that the Buyer cannot do himself and us a greater right than to take a view of them at the place where they are to be Sold, and where, or at the Ship in St. Paul's Church-yard, a person shall be ready to attend them at any time before the Sale, which will begin on the fifteenth day of November punctually, at Nine of the Clock in the Morning, and at two in the Afternoon, and so continue daily till the Books are all Sold.

The CONDITIONS are these;

I. That He who Bids most is the Buyer ; and if any manifest Difference arise, which the Company cannot Decide, then the same Book or Books shall be forthwith Exposed a second time.

II. That all the Books in the Catalogue, not otherwise Expressed (for ought we know) are Perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwise before they be taken away, the Buyer shall have his Choice of Taking or Leaving them.

III. That the Money for the Book or Books Bought, is to be Paid by the Buyer within one Month after the AUCTION is ended, at the Place where they are Sold, or at Mr. Took's House at the Ship in St. Paul's Church-yard.

The Reader is desired to take notice that no Books will be Exposed to Sale in this Auction, but the proper Books of Sr. Edward Byshe's Library.
